LIBERTY BOWL STADIUM

In 1965, an unprecedented $32 million was paid for a four year contract with the NCAA to broadcast football games on Saturday afternoons, Edward White became the first American to walk in space, and the Memphis Memorial Stadium opened.

The playing surface was natural grass from its inception and was replaced by FieldTurf in 2005 and AstroTurf in 2012. Designed as a true bowl, the facility is built so that all seats provide a great view of the playing filed.

Dedicated to Memphis veterans of World Wars I and II and the Korean War, it soon became the home of the Liberty Bowl football game, now known as the AutoZone Liberty Bowl. The stadium was soon renamed the Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium. In keeping with its patriotic theme, an historic electric American Flag was renovated and moved to the stadium in 1966. Lit at night, the unusual neon flag can be seen "waving" for miles.

CATS, MIDSHIPMEN TANGLE ON NEW YEAR'S EVE

FIRST TIME MATCHUP ON TAP FOR LIBERTY BOWL

An eight-win regular season was rewarded with Kansas State's ninth bowl berth in the last 10 years as the Wildcats look to win three-consecutive bowl games for the first time in school history against first-time opponent Navy in the 61st Annual AutoZone Liberty Bowl. The game is slated for a 2:45 p.m., kickoff on Tuesday, December 28, inside Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium in Memphis, Tennessee.

The Liberty Bowl is the 22nd bowl game in school history, with 21 of those coming since 1993. The Wildcats are advancing to postseason play under first-year head coach Chris Klieman, who has the most wins by a first-year head coach in school history and the second-most victories this season by a first-time Power 5 head coach (Ryan Day, Ohio State).

The 2019 version of the AutoZone Liberty Bowl will be K-State's second trip to the Birthplace of Rock 'n Roll as the Wildcats will look to avenge a 45-23 loss to Arkansas in the game following the 2015 season.

The Wildcats are one of just 22 teams in the nation to advance to at least nine bowl games this decade, including one of four in the Big 12 (Baylor, Oklahoma, Oklahoma State). In its last two bowl games, the Wildcats defeated Texas A&M, 33-28, in the 2016 Texas Bowl prior to a 35-17 victory over UCLA in the 2017 Cactus Bowl. It was the second time in school history that K-State won consecutive bowl games as the Wildcats look for their first three-game bowl winning streak against Navy.

A LOOK AT THE WILDCATS

K-State rode the waves of celebration and adversity on its way to an 8-4 regular season as the Wildcats jumped out to a 3-0 start – highlighted by a 31-24 win at Mississippi State – before dropping its first two Big 12 games. The win in Starkville was the Wildcats' first at an SEC venue, going 0-11 prior to the fourth-quarter comeback victory.

Following the 0-2 start to conference play, the Wildcats got back on track with a 24-17 victory over TCU, which preceded a 48-41 upset victory over then-No. 5 and now College Football Playoff participant Oklahoma. The Wildcats erased a pair of 10-point deficits by outscoring the Sooners, 41-6, over the second and third quarters before hanging on in the final period for the win.

K-State went on to earn its 11th-straight Sunflower Showdown victory over Kansas the next week, but it dropped the next two games by a combined seven points – a three-point loss at Texas on a field goal as time expired and a four-point defeat to West Virginia.

The Wildcats pushed through adversity to secure wins their final two contests, a 30-27 victory at Texas Tech and a 27-17 win in the regular-season and home finale over Iowa State, K-State's 11th win in the last 12 years over the Cyclones.

Kansas State is led on offense by junior quarterback Skylar Thompson, a 2019 Honorable Mention All-Big 12 pick who is in line to make the 27th career start. The Independence, Missouri, native has set career highs in passing yards (2,191), touchdowns (12) and completions (167) this season, while he has been one of the more effective running quarterbacks in the Big 12 in 2019.

The Wildcats boast three running backs with at least 250 rushing yards, led by graduate transfer and All-Big 12 pick James Gilbert with 698 yards and six touchdowns. Another grad transfer, Jordon Brown, has 367 yards and four scores, while junior Harry Trotter has 261 yards and three scores. The trio has run behind a senior-laden offensive line that seen five of the six regular contributors earn All-Big 12 honors this season.

The wideouts are led by senior Dalton Schoen, who has 35 catches for 567 yards and four scores, while freshman Malik Knowles and Phillip Brooks also have at least 20 catches for 250 yards.

Defensively, senior safety Denzel Goolsby leads four players that have at least 50 tackles, while First Team All-Big 12 defensive end Wyatt Hubert ranks second in the league in sacks (7.0) and eighth in tackles for loss (12.5). Cornerback AJ Parker has a team-high three interceptions and eight total passes defended, while Goolsby and linebacker Da'Quan Patton each have two picks.

Kansas State has been known to have stellar special teams, and 2019 is no different as its place kicker, Blake Lynch, punter, Devin Anctil, and kick returner, Joshua Youngblood each earned All-Big 12 honors. Youngblood was the 2019 Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Year with a nation-leading three kickoff-return touchdowns. Anctil ranks first in the Big 12 with a 45.0-yard average, which including 17 punts of 50 or more yards. Lynch ranks seventh nationally in field-goal percentage (90.0%) and 22nd in field goals per game (1.50).

A LOOK AT THE MIDSHIPMEN

Navy enters the AutoZone Liberty Bowl with a 10-2 record – including a 7-1 mark to tie for first in the AAC West – fresh off a 31-7 victory over Army to claim the Commander-in-Chief Trophy. Navy's only two losses this year are a 35-23 defeat at Memphis – the Group of 5 representative in the New Year's Six – and a 52-20 setback at then-No. 16 Notre Dame.

The Midshipmen rank first in the nation with a 363.7-yard average on the ground, 66.5 yards better than the next best team. Quarterback Malcolm Perry ranks second nationally with 150.3 rushing yards per game as the Mids' signal caller is coming off a 304-yard, two-touchdown performance against the Black Knights, a game in which he did not attempt a pass. Perry has 21 touchdowns on the season, while Jamale Carothers is second with 14 touchdowns and a 79.1-yard rushing average per game.

Linebacker Diego Fagot has a team-high 93 tackles, while striker Jacob Springer paces Navy in both tackles for loss (16.0) and sacks (8.0). Three Midshipmen have two interceptions on the season.

GETTING OFF THE FIELD

• The K-State defense has excelled in terms of getting off the field on third down during this year as the Cats lead the nation in third down defense (25.9%) ahead of Wisconsin (27.1%), UCF (28.0%) and Ohio State (28.6%).

• The Cats have allowed only 35 third down conversions this year, the fewest in that nation by 10 (Wisconsin, 45).

• The low conversion number is aided by the Wildcats not allowing a single one against Bowling Green – the first time since the 2003 Kansas game that K-State did not allow a third-down conversion – while it was the first time since 2011 that a Big 12 team did not give up one.

• In the regular-season finale against Iowa State, the Wildcats limited the Cyclones to just 1-of-13 on third-down conversions (7.7%), the lowest conversion rate that K-State had yielded in a Big 12 contest since the aforementioned Kansas game.

• Additionally, K-State was the last team in the nation to allow a fourth-down conversion when Texas converted one on November 9.

3-AND-OUT

• K-State forced teams into 39 three-and-out this year, its highest mark since the 2007 team also totaled 39.
• In Big 12 play, the Cat defense had 25 three-and-outs, the most since also having 25 in 2014.
• The Wildcats ended the year in a high note in that department as, in addition to limiting Iowa State to 1-of-13 on third downs, they forced six three-and-outs on 12 Cyclone drives. It was the most three-and-outs by K-State in a Big 12 game since the 2016 TCU contest (6).

LIMITED SNAPS

• Thanks to its efficiency on third downs and its success in forcing 3-and-outs, the K-State defense is one of the nation's leaders in fewest defensive snaps played.
• K-State has defended against just 713 plays in its 12 games as its 59.4 defensive snaps per game rank second in the nation.

BACK FOR MORE

• Sophomore defensive end Wyatt Hubert had an outstanding rookie campaign in 2018 by earning Freshman All-America honors from USA TODAY Sports, and he has upped his game in 2019.
• Hubert, a 2019 First Team All-Big 12 performer, enters the bowl season ranked second in the Big 12 in sacks, while his 11.5 career sacks are tied for the second most by a Wildcat prior to his junior season.
• Earning votes for both the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year and Big 12 Defensive Lineman of the Year awards, Hubert only trails Darren Howard, who had 13.5 sacks over his freshman and sophomore seasons (1996-97), and is tied with Ian Campbell, who had 11.5 in his sophomore season of 2006.

REGGIE CLOSING IN

• Senior defensive end Reggie Walker has tied one school record and is close to entering the top 10 in another category.
• The Ponchatoula, Louisiana, native has nine career forced fumbles to tie the school history, joining Darren Howard (1996-99) and Grady Newton (1983-87).
• His nine forced fumbles are tied for fourth nationally among active players.
• Walker also has 17.0 career sacks to sit one away from entering the school's top-10 list and tie for 24th in the country among active players.

STOUT UP THE MIDDLE

• Not to be outdone by the edge, the interior of the defensive line also has a bevy of experience as senior Trey Dishon has started 49 games, including 47-straight.
• Senior Jordan Mittie has taken a hold of the other tackle spot in 2019. A career 43-game starter, which includes 24 starts in two seasons at Texas State, Mittie had perhaps his best game as a Wildcat at Mississippi State when he had a K-State career-high seven tackles – two shy of his overall career high – and a tackle for loss.

PATTON'S PICKS

• A year after leading K-State in tackles, linebacker Da'Quan Patton has shown his versatility as a senior in 2019.
• Patton, who ranks fourth on the team in tackles, has two interceptions this year – one at Kansas and the other at Texas Tech.
• It is the first time a Wildcat linebacker had multiple interceptions in a season since Elijah Lee had two in 2016.

SULLIVAN'S SWITCH WORKS

• Linebacker Elijah Sullivan, who received a medical hardship for the 2018 season, was set to start the season at weakside linebacker until a season-ending injury to Justin Hughes last in spring practices forced him to move to the middle.
• The change has worked out for Sullivan, who ranks second on the team in tackles with 54, while he has a career-best 5.0 tackles for loss.
• Sullivan, an Honorable Mention All-Big 12 selection, has also been disruptive in the passing game with five passes defended, which includes an interception at Oklahoma State.
• Sullivan's five passes defended are the most by a K-State linebacker since Elijah Lee had five in 2016. If Sullivan were to get one in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl, it would be the most by a Wildcat backer since 2012 Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year Arthur Brown had six.

SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

SCORING IN THE THIRD PHASE

• Kansas State has been far and away the best team among FBS programs over the last 15 years when it comes to scoring via a kickoff or punt return.
• The Wildcats have a combined 52 kickoff- and punt-return touchdowns since 2005, 21 more than any other FBS school during that stretch.
• Malik Knowles got things going for the Wildcats in that department in 2019 with a 100-yard kickoff return at Mississippi State, while Joshua Youngblood went 98 yards for a kickoff-return score at Texas, 100 yards at Texas Tech and 93 yards on the opening kickoff in the regular-season finale against Iowa State.

WILDCATS IN THE NFL

With the NFL in the midst of its 100th season, K-State currently has 12 players NFL rosters. Of the 12 players, seven are on offense and five are on defense.
The longest-tenured former Wildcat is Darren Sproles (15th year; Philadelphia), while Tyler Lockett (Seattle) and Cornelius Lucas (Chicago) are set to begin their fifth seasons.

K-State has two players from last year's squad on NFL rosters, which includes second-round draft pick Dalton Risner (Denver) and sixth-round pick Duke Shelley (Chicago). Their selections extended K-State's Big 12-leading streak with at least one player selected in the NFL Draft to a Big 12-record 26 years.

GOING THE DISTANCE

• Kansas State has been the best team in the country in kickoff-return touchdown with four, a mark that is tied for the school record with the 2009 and 2015 teams.
• The Wildcats have as many or more kickoff-return touchdowns this year than the combined conference totals of four FBS leagues (Pac-12: 4; Sun Belt: 4; SEC: 2; MAC: 2).
• The Wildcats, who represent 0.7% of FBS teams (1 of 130) have 8.7% (4 of 46) of kickoff-return touchdowns in the nation this year entering the bowl season.

DEFENSE ON KICKOFFS

• K-State has been consistent in terms of kickoff coverage as the Cats have not allowed a kickoff-return touchdown in the last 87 games, the last being against Louisiana on September 7, 2013. During that stretch, K-State has defended against 324 kickoff returns.
• K-State has ranked in the top 30 nationally in kickoff return defense each of the last five seasons, including a No. 2 national ranking in 2017.
• The Wildcats enter the bowl season ranked 23rd in that department by limiting opponents to just 18.09 yards per return.

YB ALL THE WAY

• True freshman Joshua Youngblood has excelled in his rookie campaign on kickoff returns.
• The Tampa, Florida, native ended the year with three kickoff-return touchdowns over the final four games, going 98 yards at Texas, 100 yards at Texas Tech and 93 yards in the regular-season finale.
• His three kickoff-return touchdowns rank third in school history for a season – and are tops among freshmen – while he already ranks fourth in K-State history for a career.
• Youngblood also ranks third in Big 12 history and tops among freshmen for single-season kickoff-return touchdowns, while he is already tied for seventh in league history for a career.
• Youngblood holds a 38.1-yard kickoff return average, which would lead the nation if he had two more attempts. He needs three attempts in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl to be eligible to place in the NCAA rankings (1.2 attempts per game).

A SPECIAL PLAYER

• Joshua Youngblood is the continuation of great return men in K-State history as he was named the Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Year by the league's coaches in addition to being named to multiple All-America teams.
• Youngblood became the first true freshman in Big 12 history to earn the league's top honor on offense, defense or special teams.
• It was the fifth time a Wildcat earned the top special teams honor since the award was established in 2005, joining Morgan Burns (2015), Tyler Lockett (2013 and 2014) and Brandon Banks (2009).
• Youngblood was also named a First Team All-Big 12 kick returner, the first Wildcat true freshman to be named to the first team since the league's inception in 1996.
• His All-America designation made him the first Wildcat true freshman to land on a first or second team since Lockett in 2011.

LYNCH IS ACCURATE

• A former walk-on, Blake Lynch has proven to be an accurate kicker as he his career field goal percentage of 88.9% (32-for-36) currently ranks fifth nationally among active players and first in school history.
• Lynch, a 2019 Lou Groza Award candidate and Honorable Mention All-Big 12 performer, is 18-of-20 this season to rank third in school history and tied for seventh nationally with a 90.0% mark.
• His 18 field goals this year are tied for fifth in school history, while his 32 career makes rank eighth.

• He set a new career high in average at Mississippi State at 50.6 – a game that featured three punts that traveled 50 yards or more – while he reset that mark against Oklahoma with a 53.3-yard mark.
• Anctil is tied for the Big 12 lead with 17 punts of 50 or more yards, 13 of which have traveled at least 55 yards and five that went at least 60 yards.
• His performance this season has added to his impressive career average, a mark he also ranks first in school history at 44.55.

HEAD COACH CHRIS KLIEMAN

"Stack good days on top of good days, and I promise you will be pleased with the process." That was the message throughout year one of the Chris Klieman era at Kansas State. And let's just say there were many good days stacked on top of one another.

Klieman, a proven winner with a championship history, was named the 35th head football coach in Kansas State history on December 10, 2018, and in year one at the helm of the K-State program, the Wildcats manage to win eight games in the regular season, finish tied for third in the Big 12 after being picked ninth in the preseason, knocked off No. 5 Oklahoma at home for the first time since 1996, won at Mississippi State – the Wildcats first wins in 11 tries inside an SEC stadium – kept the Governor's Cup in Manhattan following their 11th-straight win over rival Kansas and quickly got back to bowl eligibility after missing out last season. The eight wins by Klieman were the most in school history by a first-year coach and also ranked second nationally among first-year Power 5 head coaches in 2019, trailing only Ohio State's Ryan Day.

A total of 15 Wildcats earned All-Big 12 recognition in 2019, led by Special Teams Player of the Year Joshua Youngblood, who became the first true freshman in Big 12 history to be named Big 12 player of the year on offense, defense or special teams. His three kick returns for touchdowns led the nation in 2019 and sparked key Big 12 wins over Texas Tech and No. 23 Iowa State.

Prior to arriving at K-State, Klieman capped his five-year stint as head coach at North Dakota State by winning his fourth national championship in 2018. He tied Jim Tressel (Youngstown State) for the most FCS National Championships as a head coach, while he was a part of all seven of NDSU's national championships, the most in FCS history.

Klieman guided the 2018 Bison to a perfect 15-0 record, just the fifth team in FCS history to go undefeated and untied on the way to a national championship. North Dakota State also claimed that feat in 2013 when Klieman as the defensive coordinator.

A native of Waterloo, Iowa, Klieman finished first in NDSU history in winning percentage (.920) and third in victories (69).

Klieman's accomplishments as the Bison head coach came despite losing 23 seniors and welcoming seven new assistant coaches prior to his first season at the helm in 2014. That year, the Bison went 15-1 and won the national championship before going 13-2 with another national championship in 2015, 12-2 with a semifinal appearance in 2016 and 14-1 with a third national title in 2017.

Klieman holds an 80-17 record in his six-plus seasons overall as head coach, including a 69-6 mark at North Dakota State and 8-4 at K-State. His 82.5 winning percentage as a head coach is the eighth-highest mark by an active coach among all NCAA Divisions, while it is the top mark among current FBS coaches.

Klieman's record is even more impressive considering 39 of his 69 wins at North Dakota State (56.5 percent) came over ranked opponents, while he had two wins in two tries over FBS competition – a 34-14 victory at Iowa State in his first game at the helm of NDSU and a 23-21 triumph at 11th-ranked Iowa in 2016. His teams have also been stellar in protecting home field as evidenced by his 43-3 home record at NDSU, which includes winning each of his last 19 games at the FargoDome.

The Bison won the Missouri Valley Football Conference each of his five years as head coach and put together a collective 36-4 (90.0 percent) record against conference foes during that time. He was named the Bruce Craddock MVFC Coach of the Year in 2017, while he was the 2014 Rawlings Football/American Football Monthly FCS Coach of the Year and the 2018 AFCA Region 4 FCS Coach of the Year.

Klieman's teams were a model of success at NDSU, ranking highly in many of the key statistical categories throughout his tenure. The Bison scoring offense ranked in the top 10 each of his final three seasons in Fargo, including a 41.5-points-per-game mark to rank sixth in 2018, and their total offense mark ranked in the top 20 the final two years, including a 271.7-yard mark in 2018 to rank 14th in the nation.

Klieman, who came up through the coaching ranks on defense, has always produced on that side of the ball as NDSU finished his final season ranked in the top 15 in red zone defense (1st), scoring defense (3rd) and total defense (5th). The Bison ranked in the top six in scoring and total defense in four of his five seasons as head coach, including a No. 1 national ranking in total defense in 2017 (237.4).
Elevated from defensive coordinator to head coach at NDSU on December 15, 2013, Klieman's defensive units during his two-year run as coordinator each included top-10 rankings in scoring defense, total defense, rushing defense and passing defense. Highlighting that run were No. 1 rankings in scoring defense in both 2012 and 2013, and total defense in 2012, the latter when he was named the Football Scoop FCS Coordinator of the Year. NDSU also led the nation in scoring defense when he was the defensive backs coach in 2011.

Klieman began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Northern Iowa, in 1991 and 1992 before being promoted to an assistant coach in 1993. He went on to Western Illinois as an assistant coach from 1994 to 1996 before serving as a graduate assistant at Kansas in 1997 and an assistant coach at Missouri State in 1999.

Klieman then moved on to Division III Loras College in Dubuque, Iowa, where he was the defensive coordinator from 2002 to 2004 before taking over as head coach for the 2005 season. He returned to Northern Iowa in 2006 as an assistant coach before being elevated to defensive coordinator for the 2009 and 2010 seasons.

Klieman was a three-time All-Gateway Conference defensive back at Northern Iowa and four-year letterwinner from 1986-90. He graduated from UNI in 1990 with a bachelor's degree in health education and a master's degree in physical education in 1992.

Klieman and his wife, Rhonda, are parents of two sons, Devin and Colby, and one daughter, Haley.

• A true freshman who has shined on both offense and special teams in his first year.

• Earned a pair of All-America designations, including second-team honors from CBS Sports to become the first Wildcat with first- or second-team honors since Tyler Lockett in 2011.

• Named the 2019 Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Year, the first freshman in league history to earn player of the year honors on either offense, defense or special teams.

• It is the fifth time that a Wildcat earned the league's top special teams honors since the award was established in 2005, joining Morgan Burns (2015), Lockett (2013 and 2014) and Brandon Banks (2009).

• Also earned First Team All-Big 12 honors as a kick returner, the first Wildcat true freshman to be named to the first team since the league's inception in 1996.

• Enters the bowl season ranked first nationally in kickoff-return touchdowns.

• His three kickoff-return touchdowns rank third in school history for a season – and are tops among freshmen – while he ranks fourth in K-State history for a career.

• Also ranks third in Big 12 history and tops among freshmen for single-season kickoff-return touchdowns, while he is tied for seventh in league history for a career.

• Also tied for fifth nationally among active players in career kickoff-return touchdowns.

• Holds a Big 12-leading 38.1-yard kickoff-return average, which would rank first in the nation if he had two more attempts to meet the NCAA required minimum.

• Is the first true freshman nationally with two kickoff returns of at least 98 yards since USC's Adorre' Jackson also went 98 and 100 yards in 2014 (Oregon's Mykael Wright accomplished the feat this year after Youngblood).

• Teamed with Malik Knowles to be the first pair of freshman teammates to have kickoff-return touchdowns in the same year since 2016 (Memphis).

▶ Game Notes

• Head coach Chris Klieman earned a win in his first game leading the Wildcats... The 35-point victory by the Klieman-led Wildcats was the biggest margin of victory by a K-State head coach in their debut... The previous high was 31 points as the Ward Haylett-led Wildcats defeated Kansas Wesleyan, 37-6, in 1942.

• K-State finished the game with 573 yards of total offense, which tied for the seventh most for a game in school history and the most ever in a season opener.

• Kansas State finished the game with 361 rushing yards on 58 carries... It was the most rushing yards by any Wildcat team in a season opener since 1981, when the Wildcats rushed for 368 yards in a 31-10 home-opening win over South Dakota (9/12/81).

• Junior quarterback Skylar Thompson made his second-straight start in a season opener... He became the first Wildcat quarterback since Collin Klein (2011, 2012) to win two-consecutive season openers.

• Senior running back James Gilbert tallied a 100-yard game as he went for 115 yards and one touchdown on 18 carries... It was his ninth-career 100-yard game and first since the 2018 season opener against Central Connecticut when he was playing for Ball State... He was the first Wildcat to reach the 100-yard mark in their Wildcat debut since Daniel Thomas went for 104 yards against UMass on 2009.

• A total of 51,189 fans witnessed Saturday's game, marking the 11th-straight sellout of the Wildcats' season opener.

CATS RUN WILD, OPEN KLIEMAN ERA WITH WIN

MANHATTAN, Kan. – Chris Klieman wasn't the only one making his K-State debut on Saturday night. Almost all of K-State's running backs were as well.

All left positive first impressions.

K-State won, 49-14, against Nicholls in front of a sold-out crowd. The Wildcats, who returned zero rushing yards from running backs from last season, amassed 361 rushing yards to open the Klieman era. It marked the most in a K-State season opener since at least 1981.

The Wildcats accomplished this behind, mostly, a trio of K-State newcomers: James Gilbert, Jordon Brown and Harry Trotter. Those three combined for 214 rushing yards, led by Gilbert's 115 yards on 18 carries. Each of them had one touchdown, all coming in a first half that K-State dominated by a 28-0 margin.

Tyler Burns, who returned to K-State's program after a season away, joined the rushing fray late on Saturday. He rushed for 60 yards on 10 attempts, including 56 yards on nine carries on K-State's final scoring drive about midway through the fourth quarter. He finished it with a 1-yard touchdown plunge.

For a position group that started all but empty when Klieman and his staff took over, depth did not look to be an issue after nine months of work.

Gilbert, a graduate transfer from Ball State, became the first Wildcat to eclipse 100 yards rushing in his first K-State game since Daniel Thomas in 2009. Gilbert's longest run, a 24-yard scamper in the second quarter, finished one of K-State's five scoring drives of at least 10 plays.

Trotter, a junior who sat out last season after transferring from Louisville, collected 50 yards on 10 carries. The Atchison native ran through multiple tackles on a 9-yard touchdown run that capped a 12-play, 72-yard drive to open the game. K-State followed with three straight scoring drives.

Brown, a graduate transfer from North Carolina who joined the team in July, added in 49 yards on 11 carries. He scored on a 14-yard run early in the second quarter, but he also snagged a pair of passes for 28 yards from redshirt junior quarterback Skylar Thompson, who finished 16-of-22 through the air for 212 yards and a touchdown.

The run game set the tone, helping K-State eat up more than 41 minutes of clock. But the defense factored into that as well.

K-State allowed only 17 yards in the first quarter and 64 in the first half. AJ Parker jumped a pass for an interception on Nicholls' second offensive play of the day, setting up K-State's second touchdown. The Colonels did not get a first down until the second quarter and finished with only two in the opening half.

Early in the fourth quarter, Jonathan Alexander forced a fumble and scooped it for a 25-yard touchdown. He celebrated with a sledgehammer on the sideline, part of K-State's "Pound the Stone" mantra that Klieman said the team fully bought into coming into this season.

▶ Game Notes

• Kansas State started 2-0 for the second time in the last three seasons and the eighth time in the last 12 years... Head coach Chris Klieman became the seventh coach in school history to win their first two games... Saturday's victory marked the 23rd-straight victory by a Klieman-led team dating back to 2017 at North Dakota State.

• Kansas State broke the 500-yard mark of total offense for a second-straight game as the Wildcats racked up 521 yards on Saturday and 573 yards last week against Nicholls... It was the first time in school history that K-State began the season with two-straight games of 500 yards total offense, while it was the first overall since 2003... That season, the Wildcats had 502 yards at Iowa State followed by 561 yards at Nebraska.

• Kansas State finished the game with 333 rushing yards on 58 carries... Paired with last week's 361 rushing yards against Nicholls, it was the first time since at least 1965 that the Wildcats started with two-consecutive outings of 300 rushing yards... It was the first time overall with consecutive 300-yard games since playing Kansas (342) and TCU (336) in 2016.

• Following five rushing scores last week, Kansas State added five more on Saturday to bring the season total to 10... It was the most rushing touchdowns by K-State in the first two games of the season since the 2002 team had 10 (5 vs. Western Kentucky, 5 vs. Louisiana Monroe)... Of the 10 rushing touchdowns this season, 9 have been by running backs... Last season, the Wildcats had 13 rushing touchdowns by running backs in 12 games.

CATS DOMINATE BOTH SIDES OF BALL IN 52-0 WIN

MANHATTAN, Kan. – Different opponent, same dominance.

K-State totaled 521 yards of offense, allowed less than 150 yards on defense and rolled to a 52-0 win against Bowling Green.

Like last week, the Wildcats' extreme command of the game could be seen early and all over the field, including the sideline. That's where K-State's defense spent more than 22 minutes in the first half and 42 minutes for the game.

K-State's defense barely played half that on Saturday, with Bowling Green only getting 44 plays of offense.

The Falcons also went 0-for-11 on third down conversions and 0-for-2 on fourth, but the tone was set early. In Bowling Green's first four drives, the Wildcats forced three three-and-outs. They finished with eight such series en route to their first shutout since blanking South Dakota in 2015.

K-State allowed only three first downs and 81 yards of offense in the first half, which ended with the Wildcats up 38-0 — their largest halftime lead since a 42-0 advantage over Florida Atlantic in 2016. Bowling Green finished with a meager 140 yards of total offense against K-State's swarming defense — the first time the Wildcats have limited an opponent to less than 150 since 2011 against Eastern Kentucky.

K-State's offense returned the favor.

The Wildcats scored on their first seven drives in the game. After settling for a 24-yard field goal from Blake Lynch on the first drive of the game, the Wildcats finished their next six drives in the end zone.

K-State's 333 rushing yards helped push the team over 500 yards of total offense. It marked the first time in program history that K-State eclipsed 500 yards of total offense in its first two games of the season and the first time since 2003 for any two-game stretch.

Explosive plays and players were a big part of this.

Jordon Brown broke off a 50-yard touchdown run in the first quarter for K-State's first touchdown. James Gilbert, who recorded 103 yards for his second consecutive game over the century mark, picked up nearly half on a 51-yard scamper in the second quarter. Gilbert scored on the next play, his second touchdown of the day.

Quarterback Skylar Thompson continued to display his trust in redshirt freshman receiver Malik Knowles. Thompson, who finished 10-of-13 for 151 yards, targeted Knowles six times. They connected on five of them for 99 yards, including touchdown grabs of 34 and 20 yards.

K-State's early and continuous success allowed several younger players on the field for the second week in a row. In total, 88 different Wildcats and 11 true freshmen saw game time.

Quarterbacks Nick Ast and John Holcombe II traded off series for most of the second half. Freshman running back Jacardia Wright led the team with 14 carries, all in the second half, while fellow freshman Joe Ervin carried the ball eight times and scored his first touchdown from 6 yards out in the third quarter. Seth Porter and Joshua Youngblood each recorded their first catches in a K-State uniform.

▶ Game Notes

• The Wildcats earned their first road win in program history over a team that was in the SEC at the time the game was played... K-State's last road win over a current member of the SEC was 2008 at Texas A&M when it was a member of the Big 12... The victory over Mississippi State was also the Wildcats' first regular-season road victory over a non-conference Power 5 team since winning 28-24 at Miami in 2011... It was also the program's first regular-season victory over an SEC team since a 23-9 home win over Kentucky in 1982.

• K-State has started 3-0 for the first time since 2015 and the fifth time since 2010... Chris Klieman became the fourth coach in school history to win their first three games... The victory marked the 24th-straight victory by a Klieman-led team dating back to 2017 at North Dakota State.

• K-State added two more rushing touchdowns to bring the season total to 12... It is the most rushing touchdowns by K-State in the first three games of the season since the 2002 team had 13 (5 vs. Western Kentucky, 5 vs. Louisiana Monroe, 3 vs. Eastern Illinois)... Of the 12 rushing touchdowns this season, 10 have been by running backs... Last season, the Wildcats had 13 rushing touchdowns by running backs in 12 games.

• Malik Knowles returned a fourth-quarter kickoff 100 yards to tie the game... It was the Wildcats' seventh 100-yard kickoff return in school history and the first since Morgan Burns had one in 2015 against Iowa State... It was just the third in a road game in school history and first since Tyler Lockett did so at Texas Tech in 2011.

CATS CONTROL FOURTH QUARTER IN 31-24 WIN

STARKVILLE, Miss. – K-State faced roughly no adversity in its first two wins this season. The Wildcats knew that would end in Week 3, but they were prepared to bounce back from it in a 31-24 win at No. 23 Mississippi State in Davis Wade Stadium.

The Wildcats scored 14 unanswered points in the fourth quarter, after MSU put up 17 straight, to clinch the program's first road win against a Power Five opponent since topping Miami 28-24 in 2011. It also marked the program's first ever road win over an opponent in the SEC at the time the game was played.

Malik Knowles delivered a momentum-changing blow early in the fourth quarter of a game played in 100-degree humid temperatures. The freshman receiver tied the game at 24 with a 100-yard kickoff return. It ended a long dry spell from K-State, which included only two true offensive series and 15 total yards in the third quarter.

After the special teams score, the Wildcat defense forced two consecutive three-and-outs to give them five such stops for the game. Quarterback Skylar Thompson followed the second fourth quarter stop with a six-play, 53-yard scoring drive to take the lead. He ended it with a 15-yard touchdown pass to senior receiver Dalton Schoen with 5:37 to play.

K-State turned MSU over on downs on the ensuing drive. On fourth-and-16, AJ Parker and Elijah Sullivan capped the stop by hitting a diving MSU quarterback Garrett Schrader, propelling him into a helicopter spin that forced him to fall a yard shy of the first down marker.

K-State overcame a trio of lost fumbles with the strong fourth quarter, two on muffed punt returns and another on a Parker interception return. MSU turned those Wildcat turnovers into 17 points between the second and third quarters.

The Wildcats also turned the Bulldogs over three times, turning two of them into a combined 10 points.

Senior safety Denzel Goolsby, who led the team with 11 tackles, snagged an interception that bounced off the hands of a Mississippi State receiver in the first quarter. It led to a 35-yard field goal from Blake Lynch.

About three minutes before halftime, freshman linebacker Daniel Green scooped up a fumble to set up a 30-yard scoring drive. MSU answered, however, with a 31-second touchdown drive, finished by a 35-yard touchdown pass to take momentum into the half.

▶ Game Notes

• Kansas State and Oklahoma State met for the 66th time in series history with the Cowboys now holding a 26-40 advantage... OSU snapped a two-game winning streak by the Wildcats... K-State fell to 11-13 all-time in Big 12 openers, while the Wildcats are now 10-14 in Big 12 road openers... Kansas State has now dropped its last five initial Big 12 road contests of the season as its last win in such occasions was at Iowa State in 2014.

• Kansas State added a rushing touchdown on Saturday to bring the season total to 13... Of the 13 rushing touchdowns this season, 11 have been by running backs... Last season, the Wildcats had 13 rushing touchdowns by running backs in 12 games.

• Kansas State was the last team in the nation to commit an offensive turnover when it did so with a fumble in the first quarter... The Wildcats went the first 189 minutes, 38 seconds of the season without an offensive turnover.

• Sophomore defensive end Wyatt Hubert finished the game with four tackles, including 2.0 sacks and a forced fumble... His 2.0 sacks tied a career high he set last year against Texas Tech, while it was his first-career forced fumble.

• Senior Devin Anctil punted seven times for a 45.9-yard average, which included a 54-yarder and a pair of punts inside the 20-yard line... It was the fourth time in his career he held an average of 45 or more yards, including the second-straight game.

K-STATE DROPS BIG 12 OPENER AT OSU

STILLWATER, Okla. – K-State figured if it could win the battle of the red zone against a high-powered Oklahoma State offense, it would have a chance in Boone Pickens Stadium.

The No. 24/22 Wildcats did so defensively, limiting the Cowboys to one touchdown in five red zone opportunities. K-State's offense, however, only reached the red zone twice and struggled to find success for most of a 26-13 loss to start Big 12 play.

OSU, ranked No. 11 nationally in total offense (533.8) and No. 12 in scoring offense (44.5) coming in, put up 526 yards of offense but was held nearly 20 points below its scoring average.The Cowboys' one touchdown in the red zone came off a drive that started on K-State's 26-yard line after a Wildcat fumble in the first quarter.

The Wildcats turned the Cowboys over twice on a pair of interceptions from Elijah Sullivan and Darreyl Patterson in the second half.

Sullivan's pick led to one of Blake Lynch's two made field goals. Patterson's occurred with K-State down 23-6 in the fourth quarter. The Wildcats scored six plays later on a 5-yard touchdown run from James Gilbert to cut their deficit to 10, but the Cowboys answered with a 6:11 drive that ended in a field goal and sealed the game.

Early on, K-State's defense kept its hopes alive. The Wildcats simply struggled to find much success on offense. They finished with 244 total yards, including 163 in the second half.

In the second quarter with K-State down 10-0, sophomore defensive end Wyatt Hubert forced a fourth down fumble to give the Wildcats the ball at the Cowboy 40. K-State failed to move the chains, however. The Wildcats converted 1-of-13 third down chances for the game.

Ultimately, OSU's three-headed attack of quarterback Spencer Sanders, running back Chuba Hubbard and receiver Tylan Wallace were too effective to keep at bay. Sanders threw for 153 yards, 145 of which went to Wallace. Hubbard finished with 296 rushing yards, highlighted by an 84-yard touchdown run in the third quarter to put OSU up 23-3.

K-State's first and biggest jolt of offense arrived after a 1-hour, 12-minute weather delay in the second quarter. Skylar Thompson connected with Sammy Wheeler for a 39-yard gain on the first play after play resumed. It was K-State's first time moving the chains, but it did not lead to a second, as the Wildcats settled for a 46-yard Blake Lynch field goal.

▶ Game Notes

• Kansas State finished the game with 123 rushing yards on 40 carries... The Wildcats now have 1,089 rushing yards this season, marking just the eighth time since 2000 and just the second since 2013 they hit the 1,000-yard mark in the first five games.

• K-State's defense logged a season-best 7.0 tackles-for-loss, including a sack by junior defensive end Bronson Massie... In all, eight different players contributed to a defensive stop behind the line of scrimmage.

• Senior wide receiver Dalton Schoen hauled in six receptions for 69 yards... He moved from 29th to 25th in school history with 1,209 career receiving yards... His six receptions were a new career high, besting the five he had at Texas and Texas Tech in 2017 in addition to the Texas game in 2018.

• Redshirt freshman wide receiver Phillip Brooks caught seven passes to lead K-State for the first time in his career... The seven catches were also a new career high, in addition to a career-best in receiving yards (69).

• Junior Blake Lynch was true on both of his field goal attempts from distances of 31 and 30 yards... Coupled with two field goals last week at Oklahoma State, it was the second time in his career he had multiple field goals in consecutive games... The first was against UTSA and at West Virginia in September last season.

• Senior Devin Anctil punted six times for a 40.8-yard average... Three of his punts landed inside the Bear 20-yard line, including three inside the 10-yard line, doubling his season tally for punts into the red zone to six.

BEARS HAND K-STATE BIG 12 HOME LOSS

MANHATTAN, Kan. – K-State's searching for consistency. The Wildcats could not find much of it in a 31-12 loss to Baylor in Bill Snyder Family Stadium.

K-State forced Baylor into five three-and-outs and six punts, including three straight of the latter to open the game. The Bears, however, collected 295 yards (69 percent) of their 426 yards of total offense on their four touchdown drives.

Wildcat punter Devin Anctil twice pinned Baylor inside its on 10-yard line. The first time, the Bears responded with a six-play, 98-yard touchdown drive in the second quarter to go up 10-3. Early in the third, the Bears went 91 yards in six plays for a touchdown to go up 17-3.

K-State, offensively, struggled to replicate those types of series.

The Wildcats put together five drives of more than 35 yards for the game and entered Baylor territory five times in the second half. They failed to sustain enough offense for many of them to matter, however.

Two of K-State's longest drives ended in Blake Lynch field goals (31 yards and 29) in the red zone. A lost fumble stopped one series. On another, with 6:24 to play and K-State down 24-6, Skylar Thompson found Dalton Schoen for a 5-yard touchdown. K-State's last drive — of 10 plays, 43 yards — ended with a turnover on downs.

K-State finished with 341 yards of offense, with Thompson connecting on 22-of-34 for 218 yards that included one touchdown and an interception that led to a touchdown in the fourth quarter.

James Gilbert carried the ball 18 times and accounted for 94 of K-State's 123 rushing yards. Schoen set a new career high for catches with six that went for 69 yards, including his third touchdown reception of the season. Redshirt freshman Phillip Brooks notched career highs in receptions (seven) and yards (69).

▶ Game Notes

• Junior quarterback Skylar Thompson made his 20th career start... The Independence, Missouri, native also rushed 10 times for 68 yards and a critical game-winning touchdown... With his three total touchdowns, Thompson now has 22 career touchdowns responsible for in his career, tying three others for 10th on K-State's all-time list... Thompson used a 61-yard scamper to key the Wildcats' final scoring drive, the longest run of his career, topping a previous long of 52 yards against Baylor on Oct. 6 last season.

• Thompson engineered the fourth game-winning touchdown drive in the fourth quarter or later in his career.

• Junior wide receiver Wykeen Gill set a new career high with with 45 receiving yards on a team-best-tying three catches to go along with his first-career touchdown... He also tied a career long with a 22-yard reception in the third quarter en route to a K-State field goal.

• Tight end Nick Lenners scored on a 21-yard touchdown reception in the first quarter, the first of his career... It was the first time a Wildcat tight end had a touchdown catch since Zach Trujillo went 36 yards for a score at Baylor in 2014.

• Junior Jonathan Alexander blocked a TCU punt in the first quarter, which led to a K-State touchdown... It was the Wildcats' first blocked punt since Brock Monty had one last season against Texas Tech... Monty's block against the Red Raiders went for a safety while he also had one against Oklahoma State.

LATE DRIVE SEALS FIRST BIG 12 WIN

MANHATTAN, Kan. – Standing 95 yards away from TCU's end zone in a tie game about midway through the fourth quarter, K-State's offense needed a productive series simply to keep the Horned Frogs out of good field position.

A first down or two for K-State, with 190 total yards of offense at the time, would have been positive, especially with the way Devin Anctil was punting.

The Wildcats had other plans, however. They marched the ball down the field in 11 plays, ate up 5:18 of game clock and Skylar Thompson ended the game-winning drive with a 3-yard touchdown run to propel K-State to a 24-17 win against TCU on Saturday afternoon.

Thompson helped deliver K-State's second-longest touchdown drive of the season (97 yards against Nicholls) and its longest against a Big 12 opponent since a 98-yard scoring drive against Texas Tech in 2017.

It also came at a point when the Wildcats were struggling to move the chains. Their previous three drives ended in punts and a combined 24 yards.

Thompson said he felt like "it was just a matter of time" before the offense got going like it did in the second quarter on a 10-play, 76-yard scoring drive. K-State also scored on a short field in the first quarter, after Jonathan Alexander blocked and recovered a punt on TCU's second possession. Thompson connected with Nick Lenners for a 21-yard touchdown pass two plays later.

Thompson, who finished the drive with his third rushing touchdown of the season, also sparked it with his legs. After a 5-yard completion to Knowles to gain some breathing room, Thompson took off on a designed second-down run for 61 yards, a career long that put K-State in TCU territory.

Two plays later, K-State faced a third-and-11. Again, Thompson put on his playmaking hat.

On third down, he connected with Chabastin Taylor for 10 yards. On fourth, he used his legs to turn a play action bootleg into a 2-yard gain when nothing else was open.

Two plays after that gritty run, K-State stared down another third-and-long. This time, the Wildcats needed nine yards. Thompson converted it with a 10-yard completion to Knowles to put K-State inside TCU's 10. After a 4-yard run from Harry Trotter, Thompson broke into the end zone on second-and-goal.

• K-State improved to 4-52 all-time against teams ranked in the top five of the Associated Press Top 25 poll, including a 3-24 mark at home... The Wildcats' last win against a team ranked in the top five was a 45-42 home victory over No. 4 Texas in 2006.

• Skylar Thompson rushed for four touchdowns... His four rushing touchdowns set a new career high as his previous high was one on 11 occasions... He is the first Wildcat with at least four rushing scores in a game since Alex Barnes had four against Oklahoma State in 2018, while he is the first K-State signal caller with at least four rushing scores in a game since Joe Hubener had four against TCU in 2015.

• Wide receiver Joshua Youngblood scored a four-yard jet sweep in the second quarter... It was his first-career rushing touchdown on the first rushing touchdown by a Wildcat true freshman since Logan Dold against Oklahoma on October 25, 2008.

CATS HOLD OFF NO. 5 OU FOR UPSET VICTORY

MANHATTAN, Kan. – K-State's stadium erupted with cheers. Soon, its student section emptied onto the field to celebrate K-State's 48-41 win against No. 5 Oklahoma.

Most of them — the students and the players — were not alive the last time K-State topped Oklahoma at home in 1996. First-year head coach Chris Klieman was coaching defensive backs at Western Illinois at the time.

Fans had not rushed the field at Bill Snyder Family Stadium since clinching a Big 12 Championship at home against Texas in 2012. This time, the Wildcats knocked off the four-time defending Big 12 champion.

For a little more than three quarters, K-State's execution was something special.

Behind it, the Wildcats overcame 10-0 and 17-7 deficits in the first quarter to take a 24-23 lead to halftime. They outscored Oklahoma 17-0 in the third quarter to build a 25-point lead and they held on in the fourth quarter for the victory.

K-State's win was sealed when an onside kick recovery by Oklahoma with less than two minutes left was overturned by replay review, prompting a loud roar in the stadium and putting K-State's offense into the victory formation.

Thompson and K-State's offense came together quickly after a three-and-out to start the game.

The Wildcats followed that series with three consecutive scoring drives of 10 or more plays that ate up a combined 15:45 of clock. K-State ended up with eight straight scoring drives between the first and fourth quarter — the most against a Big 12 opponent since recording eight in 2012 against West Virginia. K-State's run of scores was capped by a 10-play, 73-yard touchdown drive to go up 48-23 early in the fourth quarter.

The Wildcats used effective offense as a second defense, winning the time of possession by more than 16 minutes (38:08 to 21:52). They did so, in part, with a rejuvenated run game.

K-State rushed for 213 yards, led by James Gilbert's 105 on 13 carries. Jordon Brown, in his first action since K-State's Big 12 opener against Oklahoma State, added 63 yards on 12 carries. Thompson chipped in 39 yards and a career-high four scores on the ground. He also connected on 18-of-28 through the air for 213 yards, hooking up with nine different receivers.

The Wildcats also forced and took advantage of a pair Oklahoma turnovers, turning them into 14 points.

AJ Parker intercepted a pass off an Oklahoma trick play late in the first half. Thompson scored three plays later on a 14-yard draw on third-and-10.

Senior linebacker Eric Gallon forced a fumble on a pooch kick, and K-State recovered en route to one of Thompson's touchdown runs.

▶ Game Notes

• Kansas State improved its winning streak over Kansas to 11-straight games, tying the longest streak by either team in the series... It is tied with the Wildcats' 11-game streak over the Jayhawks from 1993-2003... The victory was also the sixth-straight win by K-State in Lawrence, its longest in series history.

• With the win, K-State qualified for its 22nd bowl in school history and the ninth in the last 10 years... It is the earliest in the season (game 8) in which K-State became bowl eligible since 2014 (game 7)... Chris Klieman became the second coach in school history to lead the Wildcats to a bowl game in his first season, joining Ron Prince (2006)... Klieman is the fourth head coach to lead the Wildcats to bowl eligibility, following Jim Dickey (1982), Bill Snyder (1993-2003, 2010-17) and Prince.

• K-State had five rushing touchdowns on Saturday... Paired with its six rushing scores last week against Oklahoma, the Wildcats have at least 11 rushing scores over a two-game stretch in Big 12 play for the first time since 2002... That season, K-State had six against both Iowa State and Nebraska.

• Skylar Thompson made his 22nd career start on Saturday, rushing for 127 yards and three touchdowns on 17 carries... He became the first quarterback with 100 rushing yards and 100 passing yards in the same game since Alex Delton did so against Oklahoma in 2017... He is the first quarterback with a 100-yard rushing game since Delton against UCLA in the 2017 Cactus Bowl... Adding to his four rushing scores against OU, Thompson's seven rushing TDs in a two-week span are the most since Collin Klein in 2012.

K-STATE RUNS SUNFLOWER STREAK TO 11

LAWRENCE, Kan. – No. 22/25 K-State ran over rival Kansas on both sides of the ball in a 38-10 win at Memorial Stadium.

Of K-State's 471 yards of total offense, the Wildcats amassed 342 of them on the ground in their third-straight win. K-State's sweltering defense also limited Kansas, coming off consecutive 500-plus yard games, to a mere 241 in the 117th version of Sunflower Showdown. More than 100 of those yards came after K-State went up 38-3 early in the fourth quarter, too.

Skylar Thompson led the way with a career-high 127 rushing yards, as K-State cruised to its 11th-straight win against the Jayhawks and became bowl eligible the earliest in a season since 2014. Thompson found the end zone three times on the ground, giving him seven rushing touchdowns between his last two games — the most since by a Wildcat since his position coach, Collin Klein, did so as a player in 2012.

With James Gilbert out with an injury and Jordon Brown (2 carries for 8 yards) limited, junior running back Harry Trotter stepped into a bigger role and added in a career-high 92 yards on 20 carries and a touchdown, while freshman Joe Ervin tacked on 46 yards on 10 carries. Tyler Burns contributed 58 rushing yards late in the game, highlighted by a 14-yard touchdown.

K-State's run success led to an 11-of-17 third down success rate, a season high third down total, which helped the Wildcats churn out consecutive 10-play touchdown drives to start the game. The Wildcats added a nine-play, 75-yard touchdown drive early in the third quarter to go up 24-3.

K-State's ground game also kept the clock going and Kansas' offense off the field, as the Wildcats won the time of possession by more than 16 minutes (38:03 to 21:57). It marked the biggest time-of-possession margin in K-State's favor in a Big 12 game since a 2016 win against Texas.

On top of stifling a dangerous Kansas offense, the Wildcats forced a pair of turnovers, recorded a season-high four sacks and stopped the Jayhawks twice on fourth down in the fourth quarter. K-State turned both fourth down stops into touchdowns.

K-State set the defensive tone early, too. The Wildcats held Kansas to 74 yards of total offense, including 27 rushing yards, in the first half — the least yards allowed by a Wildcat defense in a Big 12 game since 2012 against West Virginia.

When K-State hit an early offensive wall, its defense stepped up time after time. Jahron McPherson snagged an interception on Kansas' third drive. Senior Trey Dishon picked up sacks on consecutive drives after that, both on second down to help halt the Jayhawk offense.

Near the end of the first half, K-State linebacker Da'Quan Patton picked off Carter Stanley to help set up a 39-yard field goal from Blake Lynch to end the half up 17-3.

Thompson now has 23 career passing touchdowns to tie for 10th in school history with Darrell Dickey (1979-82).

• Malik Knowles hauled in a 70-yard touchdown pass in the first quarter... It was the Wildcats' longest pass since Isaiah Zuber had a 72-yarder against UTSA on September 15, 2018... • Joshua Youngblood returned a fourth-quarter kickoff 98 yards for a touchdown, the first kickoff-return score of his career... It was the second by the Wildcats this season after Malik Knowles' 100-yard return at Mississippi State... • A pair of K-State starting defenders notched new career high in tackles as linebacker Elijah Sullivan and cornerback Kevion McGee each carded nine stops.

K-STATE RALLIES, FALLS TO HORNS ON FIELD GOAL

AUSTIN, Texas – No. 16 K-State rallied from a 10-point fourth quarter deficit to tie the game, but Texas clinched a 27-24 win against the Wildcats with a field goal as time expired at Texas Memorial Stadium.

Joshua Youngblood injected K-State with new life early in the fourth quarter, as the true freshman receiver broke off a 98-yard kickoff return for a touchdown. It ended Texas' run of 24 unanswered points and cut the Wildcat deficit to three, 24-21.

K-State's defense followed suit by forcing a three-and-out, which led to a 45-yard field goal from Blake Lynch to even the game.

Texas answered with the game-winning drive, keyed by a conversion on third-and-14. The Longhorns, who went 67 yards in 13 plays to eat up the final 6:45 of the game, drug the clock down to three seconds before Cameron Dicker notched the game-winner from 26 yards out to end K-State's three-game winning streak.

K-State got off to the exact start it needed. The Wildcats scored the game's first two touchdowns, including one on the third play from scrimmage, to take an early 14-0 lead.

After a pair of runs to start the game, Skylar Thompson found redshirt freshman receiver Malik Knowles on a wheel route out of the backfield for a 70-yard touchdown. Knowles finished with 94 yards receiving on three catches.

Thompson, who finished with a career-high 253 passing yards on 17-of-27 through the air, then engineered an eight-play, 63-yard touchdown drive. The redshirt junior quarterback capped it with a 19-yard touchdown pass to Wykeen Gill for an early two-score advantage. Dalton Schoen, who finished with five catches for 68 yards, snagged a pair of third passes on this drive for 35 of those yards.

K-State's offensive hit a wall afterward, however.

On their first two drives, the Wildcats picked up 138 yards of offense on 11 plays (12.5 yards a play). They managed just 136 yards on their next six drives, 34 plays in all (4.0 yards a play). K-State was also limited to a season-low rushing total of 51 yards on 26 attempts.

Texas scored on only one of its five series in the first half, an 80-yard touchdown drive that accounted for nearly half of its total yards (162) at the break. The Longhorns picked up steam in the second half, tallying 315 yards and 20 points in the final two quarters against K-State.

LATE DRIVE COMES UP SHORT IN 24-20 LOSS

MANHATTAN, Kan. – K-State scored touchdowns on its opening drive of the first and second half but failed to put a game-winning series together on its final possession in a 24-20 loss to West Virginia.

On its 8-yard line with 2:53 to play, K-State marched to WVU's 30-yard line with less than 40 seconds left before Skylar Thompson, who recorded career highs in passing yards and completions, was intercepted at the Mountaineer 3-yard line. It marked his second interception of the day, after coming into the game with one.

West Virginia scored the game's final 10 points, all in the fourth quarter, starting with a 51-yard field goal from Casey Legg. The Mountaineers took the lead on a 50-yard touchdown pass from Jarret Doege on a third-and-22 attempt with 11:27 to play.

One of those key factors: Red zone scoring. While K-State outgained West Virginia, 421 yards to 319, the Wildcats were outscored by four (17-13) in the red zone.

The Mountaineers scored on three of four red zone opportunities and turned two of them into touchdowns on third-down passes of 19 and 15 yards from Doege. His second touchdown pass, which occurred as the first quarter ended to take a 14-10 lead, was made possible after K-State committed a personal foul on a missed field goal attempt to give the Mountaineers a new set of downs.

The Wildcats, in three red zone trips, twice settled for field goals (22 and 33 yards) on drives of 11 and 12 plays, respectively, in the first half. K-State running back James Gilbert notched the team's lone red zone touchdown, a 3-yard run to cap a 13-play, 70-yard drive that ate up 7:04 of game clock to start the second half.

K-State did start on a positive note, however.

After forcing a West Virginia three-and-out to open the game, Thompson connected with Dalton Schoen for a 68-yard touchdown on the team's first offensive play. The momentum was short lived, as West Virginia answered with a 75-yard touchdown drive. The Mountaineers found the end zone on their next drive as well.

Offensively, Thompson made some big plays with his arm to get K-State into WVU territory.

On a series that reached second-and-25, the redshirt junior quarterback scrambled and hit Phillip Brooks on third-and-10 for 22 yards. The drive ended in a Blake Lynch field goal. Later in the half, Thompson spun out of a near-sack on another third down and hit Landry Weber for 15 yards. That drive also ended with a Lynch field goal, this time from 33 yards out to improve him 13-of-14 on the year.

Thompson converted two third-and-long chances through the air on K-State's first drive of the second half, highlighted by a 16-yard pass to Schoen on a third-and-15. It helped set up Gilbert's touchdown, K-State's last points of the game.

CATS HOLD ON FOR 30-27 WIN AT TEXAS TECH

LUBBOCK, Texas – K-State scored on four of its first five possessions of the second half, including three touchdowns, but it was the Wildcats' last drive, a scoreless series, that sealed a 30-27 win at Texas Tech.

After a Texas Tech touchdown cut K-State's lead to three, the Wildcats ate up the final 3:58 of the game to end a two-game losing skid and win their third road game this season.

Skylar Thompson, who threw for 248 yards on the night, used his legs to put the game away. Facing a third-and-11 to start K-State's last drive, Thompson took off on a designed draw for 17 yards.

Two plays after Thompson's big run, running back James Gilbert played his biggest part when he broke a tackle and cut across the field for an 18-yard gain to put K-State in the victory formation.

K-State came out of halftime with a 6-3 lead, an advantage that held after both offenses heated up.

Both teams traded a pair of touchdowns to start the second half, followed by alternating field goals. Thompson, facing a third-and-6 on K-State's first drive out of halftime, connected with Phillip Brooks on a crossing route for a 14-yard touchdown. Later, Thompson hit Chabastin Taylor for a 48-yard score to go up 30-20.

In between Thompson's touchdown passes, Joshua Youngblood notched the team's other score with a 100-yard kickoff return. It marked the true freshman's second such score this season and boosted K-State's lead to 20-10.

Senior safety Denzel Goolsby picked off a Jett Duffey pass in the end zone on Texas Tech's ensuing drive, K-State's second consecutive stop at the time and its second interception of the game. Da'Quan Patton snagged the other in the first half, which led to one of Blake Lynch's two 32-yard field goals.

▶ Game Notes

• With the win, the Wildcats have now won 11 of the past 12 meetings and are 25-5 in the last 30 meetings, while they have won each of the last seven games in Manhattan... K-State has now won five-straight Senior Day games dating back to 2014.

• The Wildcats' eighth win this season gave Chris Klieman the school record for most wins by a first-year head coach... Klieman's eight wins are the second most by a first year Power 5 coach, behind only Ohio State's Ryan Day.

• Joshua Youngblood took back the opening kickoff 93 yards for a touchdown... It was his third of the season and second in as many games as he had one on Nov. 9 at Texas (98 yards) and last week at Texas Tech (100 yards)... He took over the school record for kickoff-return touchdowns by a freshman, a record that was previously held by Tyler Lockett (2011)... He is the first K-State player to return the opening kickoff of the game for a touchdown since Morgan Burns in the 2015 season opener against South Dakota and the third ever (Justin McKinney vs. Florida Atlantic, 2006)... He is the first player with kickoff-return touchdowns in consecutive games since Burns did so against Texas Tech and Iowa State.

• Jordon Brown rushed 19 times for 91 yards and a touchdown... He set K-State career highs in rushes (previous: 12 vs. Oklahoma) and yards (previous: 64 vs. Bowling Green) and reached the end zone for the first time since scoring in each of the first three games of the season... Brown's rushes tied a career-high mark he originally set when playing for North Carolina against Miami on October 28, 2017.

STRONG FOURTH QUARTER PUSHES CATS PAST ISU

MANHATTAN, Kan. – K-State scored 13 unanswered points to send its 27 seniors out with a 27-17 win in their home finale against No. 23 Iowa State.

In a cold environment with intensely swirling wind conditions, the Wildcats topped the Cyclones through some stout defense and ball control in the second half to end the regular season in a tie for third in the Big 12 standings.

Of the final 21:40 of the game, K-State held the ball for 16:41. The Wildcats ran for 231 yards, including 107 in the fourth — all of the team's offense in the last quarter, when they possessed the ball for 10:01.

Senior graduate transfer Jordon Brown led the Wildcats with 91 yards on 19 carries, including a 15-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter to go up 24-17. True freshman Jacardia Wright added 60 yards on six carries, highlighted by a 12-yard touchdown burst to put K-State up 14-0 in the first quarter. In the fourth quarter, Wright broke off a 37-yard run on the first play of K-State's final scoring drive.

Coming out of halftime in a 14-all tie, the Wildcats limited the Cyclones to 68 yards of total offense in the second half. That included just 13 yards in the third quarter. K-State, the No. 4-ranked third-down defense in the nation coming in, held Iowa State to 1-of-13 on third down.

K-State also forced Iowa State into three three-and-outs in the final two quarters and six for the game. One of those quick stops came after the first of two Skylar Thompson turnovers on consecutive drives in Wildcat territory in the third quarter. Following a lost fumble on K-State's 46, Iowa State went backward 11 yards in three plays before punting.

K-State's defense was put in a tough spot again when Thompson was intercepted on the next offensive play. Still, the Wildcats kept Iowa State out of the end zone and limited the damage to a field goal – the Cyclones' last points of the game.

K-State started the game with similar confidence after true freshman Joshua Youngblood took the opening kickoff 93 yards for a touchdown — his third such score this season.

The Wildcats then forced Iowa State into four consecutive punts in the first half. They put together a 13-play, 98-yard touchdown drive during that stretch to extend their lead to 14-0 early in the second quarter.

That advantage vanished, however, when Iowa State scored touchdowns on back-to-back drives. One score was made possible by a fourth-and-13 conversion, while the other came off a fourth-and-goal.

The Wildcats started to make those plays in the second half. Brock Purdy, 8-of-14 for 124 yards in the first half, finished the game 15-of-30 for 185 yards. The sophomore came into the game averaging nearly 315 passing yards a game.

After his pair of turnovers, Thompson brought some life to K-State's offense. He hit Chabastin Taylor for 22 yards and, two plays later, Phillip Brooks for 19 to put the Wildcats in position for Blake Lynch to hit a game-tying 43-yard field goal against the wind.

K-State scored on its next two drives to all but seal the win and make Klieman the winningest first-year head coach in program history and the second winningest first-year coach in the FBS this season.

▶ Game Notes

• Head coach Jim Dickey elected to redshirt eight seniors during the 1981 season and the move paid off in 1982 as the Wildcats were selected to play in their first ever bowl game.

• The bowl bid wasn't secured until the final game of the season when K-State pounded Colorado, 33-10, to cap a 6-4-1 season and earn an invitation from bowl representatives in the locker room following the win.

• The biggest win of the season came against in-state rival KU when the Wildcats won, 36-7, in the program's first televised night contest... It was the biggest win over the Jayhawks in 27 years.

• Darrell Ray Dickey attempted 35 passes in the 1982 Independence Bowl, a mark that still ranks second in K-State bowl history and sixth in a career.

• Punter Scott Fulhage, whose son D.J. would later punt for K-State, punted eight times in the game to rank second in Wildcat bowl history.

K-STATE FALLS IN 1982 INDEPENDENCE BOWL

SHREVEPORT, La. – Wisconsin quarterback Randy Wright tossed two touchdown passes as the Badgers overcame an early Kansas State lead for a hard-earned 14-3 victory over the Wildcats in the seventh annual Independence Bowl.

The game, played in cold and wet conditions before an announced crowd of 49,523, marked the first-ever bowl appearance by Kansas State. A 23 mile-per-hour wind dropped temperatures to 10 below zero and kept many fans away.

After a scoreless first quarter, K-State took the game's first lead with 7:10 left in the second period when Steve Willis booted a 29-yard field goal after defensive end Bob Daniels recovered a fumble at the Badger 18-yard line.

The Wildcats' lead was short-lived, however. On Wisconsin's ensuing drive following the field goal, the Badgers marched 79 yards in eight plays, scoring a touchdown on a 16-yard pass from Wright to Michael Jones to give UW a 7-3 halftime lead.

Wisconsin struck again midway through the third quarter, when game offensive MVP Wright connected with Tim Stracka on an 87-yard touchdown pass for a 14-3 Badger advantage.

K-State drove deep into Wisconsin territory on its next two possessions, but was unable to score.

One opportunity ended when a Wildcat pass was intercepted in the Badger end zone, while a second was stymied at the Wisconsin 26-yard line, when K-State could not convert on fourth down.

Darrell Ray Dickey completed 13 of 35 passes for 127 yards and one interception on the game for 1982 Big Eight Coach of the Year Jim Dickey's Wildcat squad.

The 35 pass attempts stood as a Kansas State bowl record until 2004, when Ell Roberson's 51 attempts in the 2004 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl vs. Ohio State.

• The 35-point margin of victory still stands as K-State's largest in bowl history, while the 52 points rank second.

• The Wildcats dominated on the ground, out-rushing Wyoming by nearly 200 yards... The 227 yards by K-State on the ground are the third-most in the program's bowl history, while the 36 yards yielded are the second fewest... Additionally, K-State's 502 total yards rank third.

• Current K-State wide receivers coach Andre Coleman caught eight passes for 144 yards and one touchdown while returning two punts for 73 yards and a touchdown that went for 68 yards... • Running back J.J. Smith carded 133 yards on 20 carries and one touchdown... His rushing total ranks second in K-State bowl history.

• Quarterback Chad May passed for 275 yards and two scores... His 275 yards rank second in K-State bowl history.

WILDCATS WIN FIRST-EVER BOWL GAME

TUCSON, Ariz. – It's probable that not even Bill Snyder could have scripted the events of Dec. 29, 1993, any better as K-State put the finishing touches on one of its finest football seasons in school history with a breathtaking 52-17 total domination of Wyoming.

Wyoming took a quick 3-0 lead on a 35-yard field goal, but the rest, as they say, is history. K-State put its high-powered offense into overdrive and scored on its first three possessions. J.J. Smith put K-State on the board with a two-yard TD run as the Wildcats drove 68 yards in just six plays to take a 6-3 lead. Tate Wright added a 22-yard field goal, and on its third possession, K-State drove 76 yards in only eight plays to take a 16-3 lead on Chad May's two-yard TD plunge.

With 1:07 left in the first half, Wyoming punted deep in its own territory. All-American Andre Coleman fielded the ball at his own 32, sidestepped two defenders and then raced untouched down the far sideline for a touchdown to put K-State ahead 24-10 at the half.

Coleman and company began the second half right where they left off and quickly broke the Cowboys' spirit with a 61-yard touchdown catch just 54 seconds into the third quarter.

Freshman All-American Kevin Lockett then put K-State ahead 38-10 midway through the third quarter with a 30-yard touchdown reception. Reserve running back Leon Edwards later added a 13-yard touchdown run, and cornerback Kenny McEntyre provided the game's crowning moment with a 37-yard interception return for a touchdown with just over six minutes left in the game.

The final numbers were staggering, as the Kansas State offense rolled up 502 yards and averaging 7.5 yards per play.

Offensive MVP: Andre Coleman, WR
Defensive MVP: Kenny McEntyre, CB

▶ Game Notes

• The bowl game in Hawaii was K-State's second game away from the continential United States in two years as the Wildcats played Nebraska in Tokyo, Japan, in 1992.

• Joe Gordon's blocked punt is one of only five blocked kicks in Kansas State's bowl history, but is the only punt to be blocked by the Wildcats... The block kick led to K-State's lone score of the game when Chris Sublette recovered the ball in the end zone.

• The seven points scored by K-State were the fewest in its bowl history until the Wildcats only scored three against Syracuse in the 2001 Insight.com Bowl... Additionally, the 124 yards of total offense are the fewest in K-State bowl history.

• Chad May's 31 pass attempts are tied for the third most in Wildcat bowl history.

• May finished his prolific two-year career in the Aloha Bowl, setting numerous school passing records, including single-game passing yardage (489 vs. Nebraska) and second on the school's career passing yardage chart behind Lynn Dickey (6,208).

BC WINS DEFENSIVE BATTLE IN ALOHA BOWL

HONOLULU, Hawaii – Kansas State played Boston College to a defensive standoff much of the afternoon at Aloha Stadium, but the Wildcat offense never got on track and fell 12-7 in the 1994 Aloha Bowl.

The Eagles sacked K-State quarterback Chad May eight times, including a four-hit effort by end Mike Mamula, who was named the game's most valuable player.

Couple that with a ground game that gained just 30 yards and K-State netted just 124 altogether in finishing 9-3.

The Eagles couldn't distance themselves from the Wildcats despite a 51-yard bolt by David Green on the game's second play. That carry led to an early 7-0 cushion for the Eagles but would be the only touchdown of the day.

K-State's lone score came with eight seconds left in the first quarter when Joe Gordon crashed the middle of BC's line and blocked a punt by Jeff Beckley. Chris Sublette recovered the ball on the first hop in the end zone and the game was tied, 7-7.

However, BC would answer with its own end zone patrol later in the half when Mamula applied the biggest of his hits on May for a safety with 2:37 left.

The Wildcats reached the BC 19 on their ensuing drive, but Eric Shorter intercepted a dropped pass in the flat on third-and-15 with 19 seconds left in the half.

Still, a defense that featured punter Eric Hardy, Gordon and a pair of 10-tackle performances from Chuck Marlowe and Mario Smith kept the Wildcats within striking distance until the end.

BC could only tack on a 35-yard field goal by David Gordon with 1:18 remaining in the second half.

K-State MVP: Joe Gordon, CB

• Kansas State's 54 points and 536 total yards in the 1995 Holiday Bowl remain the school's bowl records.

KAVANAGH COMES OFF BENCH TO LEAD CATS

SAN DIEGO, Calif. – For the second time in three years, Kansas State ran roughshod over the Western Athletic Conference's best as the Wildcats outran, outplayed and outscored Colorado State for a 54-21 win in front of more than 51,000 fans at the 1995 Plymouth Holiday Bowl at Jack Murphy Stadium.

K-State began the scoring on an Eric Hickson 4-yard run with 11:21 left in the first quarter. After CSU responded with a touchdown to knot the score at 7-7, it was all Kansas State.

The Wildcats outscored the Rams, 19-0, in the second quarter by virtue of an interception return by safety Mario Smith and a blocked punt. Brian Kavanagh, who would earn the game's Offensive MVP award, came in for the injured Matt Miller in the second quarter and immediately put the ball in the end zone.

Kavanagh completed 18-of-24 passes for 242 yards and a Holiday Bowl-record tying four touchdowns. The junior signal-caller tossed scoring strikes to Brian Lojka, Tyson Schwieger, Kevin Lockett and Mitch Running.

Including Miller's statistics before he was hurt, the Wildcat quarterbacks combined to complete 24 of 32 passes for 324 yards and four touchdowns.

On the defensive side of the ball, Smith earned MVP honors by picking off two passes, registering two passes broken up, making four tackles and generally creating havoc among the Ram receivers.

The nation's top-ranked defense held the potent CSU offense to 301 yards, while forcing four turnovers.

Individually, Hickson ran for 103 yards and a touchdown on 20 carries, while catching six passes. Running caught six passes for 126 yards and a TD. Freshman punter James Garcia averaged 45.0 yards on three punts.

Offensive MVP: Brian Kavanagh, QB
Defensive MVP: Mario Smith, FS

• Cotton Bowl officials estimated that K-State fans purchased some 40,000-plus tickets, passing the previous record held by Texas Tech in 1995... Tech's total of 28,232 was surpassed by the Wildcat fans in just a 72-hour period in early December when K-State was tabbed as a participant.

• K-State continued its streak of scoring in every bowl game, dating back to a first-ever appearance in the 1982 Independence Bowl against Wisconsin.

• The 1996 senior class finished with its fourth-consecutive season with at least nine victories and its fourth-straight bowl appearance... The seniors compiled a home record of 21-3-1 and an impressive 37-10-1 overall mark, which included a 2-2 bowl record... No other group had put together such an impressive string of bowl appearances, home record and overall record in the 101 years of K-State football.

• K-State fell for the first time when senior quarterback Brian Kavanagh threw at least one touchdown pass, breaking a streak of eight-straight wins.

• Kavanagh's 72-yard touchdown pass to Kevin Lockett was a career best for both players and was also a K-State bowl record... It was the seventh-longest TD pass in Cotton Bowl history.

BYU SCORES 14 IN FOURTH FOR COMEBACK WIN

DALLAS, Texas – An estimated 45,000 Kansas State fans descended on Dallas to watch the Wildcats in their first-ever New Year's Day Bowl and were witness to one of the most exciting games of the bowl season.

After taking a 15-5 lead following a 72-yard touchdown pass from Brian Kavanagh to Kevin Lockett, the Wildcats saw why BYU quarterback Steve Sarkisian was considered one of the nation's best. The Cougar QB tossed two fourth-quarter touchdowns to lead No. 5 BYU to a 19-15 Cotton Bowl victory.

Following Sarkisian's 28-yard scoring strike to Kealaluhi with 3:39 remaining in the game, Kavanagh and Lockett led the Wildcats to a first down at the BYU 12-yard line with around one minute remaining. But, Kavanagh's pass to Jimmy Dean was picked off at the 3-yard line by Omarr Morgan to preserve BYU's 14th win.

The game's first score came when Cotton Bowl Defensive MVP Shay Muirbrook tackled Kavanagh in the end zone for a safety in the first quarter. After the free kick, BYU scored again on an Ethan Pochman 39-yard field goal.

K-State had a hard time getting on track until the final play of the first half. Kavanagh heaved a Hail Mary into the end zone, where, after the ball was deflected by a BYU defender, K-State junior Andre Anderson scooped the ball in for a touchdown. Following the PAT that gave K-State a 7-5 lead, a penalty on BYU forced the teams to return from the locker room so that the Wildcats could try for two points. Mike Lawrence made it pay off by scoring to give KSU an 8-5 lead heading into halftime.

K-State scored its second touchdown of the game when Lockett bounced off tacklers following a reception on a short slant pattern and raced 72 yards down the left sideline.

Co-Offensive MVP: Kevin Lockett, WR

PURDUE DRIVES 80 YARDS FOR LAST-MINUTE WIN

SAN ANTONIO, Texas – The unranked Purdue Boilermakers shocked the No. 4 Kansas State Wildcats, 37-34, in the sixth annual Builders Square Alamo Bowl.

More than 30,000 purple-clad fans cheered the Wildcats on in one of the most exciting bowl game finishes in school history.

After a scoreless first quarter, both offenses finally got untracked, exploding for 71 points over the final three periods.

Unfortunately for K-State, it was the Boilermakers who were the first to get things going, taking a 17-7 halftime lead courtesy of a pair of Drew Brees touchdown passes and a 25-yard Travis Dorsch field goal.

Fumble recoveries in the end zone by both squads and another Dorsch field goal, this time with just four seconds to go in the third quarter had Purdue sporting a 27-13 lead heading into the final stanza.

But the Wildcats put together a furious rally over the final 15 minutes.

David Allen, who rushed for 83 yards on 13 carries, scored from three yards out to get things going before Michael Bishop found an open Darnell McDonald for an Alamo Bowl record 88-yard touchdown strike that pulled the Cats within a field goal at 30-27. Then, with just 1:24 left in the game, Bishop connected with tight end Justin Swift for a two-yard touchdown and a 34-30 K-State lead, its first and only of the game.

Brees then engineered a six-play, 80-yard drive that ended with a 24-yard score to Isaac Jones to put the Boilermakers back on top for good at 37-34 with 30 seconds remaining.

Pinned back on its own two-yard line, K-State saw its hopes dashed when Bishop was intercepted to end the game.

• The Insight.com Bowl marked the third time that K-State played a bowl game in Arizona, falling to 2-1.

• Kansas State was held to a season-low 33 rushing yards on 34 carries... It marked just the second time in 2001 the Wildcats were held to less than 100 yards (74 vs. Colorado)... It was the second-lowest rushing output by K-State in a bowl game (-61 vs. Boston College in the 1994 Aloha Bowl).

• The Wildcats held Syracuse to only eight first downs and 222 yards of total offense... It was the lowest number of first downs allowed by K-State in a bowl game, surpassing the previous mark of 12 against Tennessee in the 2001 Cotton Bowl.

• The 222 yards allowed by the Wildcat defense was the sixth time during the 2001 season K-State allowed less than 222 yards of total offense.

K-STATE SHUT OUT FINAL THREE QUARTERS IN LOSS

PHOENIX, Ariz. – Syracuse running back James Mungro rushed for 112 yards and three touchdowns to lead the Orangemen to a victory over Kansas State in the 2001 Insight.com Bowl played at Bank One Ballpark.

Mungro scored on runs of 65, 1 and 1 yard to pace the Syracuse offense. The Orangemen added a late touchdown in the fourth quarter on a 52-yard pass from Robin Anderson to Johnnie Morant.

The Syracuse defense did a good job in stopping Kansas State's running offense, which came into the bowl game ranked fifth in the nation. Despite allowing 46 yards on 10 carries to senior Josh Scobey, the Orangemen held K-State to just 33 net rushing yards.

Junior Marc Dunn led the Wildcats with 151 yards passing in relief of starter Ell Roberson. Dunn completed 12 of 25 passes and suffered one interception. Roberson was 2-for-15 for 70 yards for the Wildcats, who were sacked five times by Syracuse.

Mungro opened the scoring on his 65-yard run midway through the first quarter.

Kansas State responded just two minutes later with a 29-yard field goal by freshman Joe Rheem. The drive was sparked by a 47-yard pass from Roberson to Aaron Lockett and a 27-yard carry by Scobey.

Syracuse took advantage of a fumble deep in Wildcat territory early in the second quarter. Mungro scored from the 1-yard line to convert the turnover, but the extra-point was blocked by Josh Buhl.

On the next play from scrimmage, Willie Ford got the first of his two interceptions to set up the Orangemen again. Two plays later, Mungro went over from the 1-yard line again, but Buhl also blocked the extra-point.

Evans' catch completed a K-State comeback from deficits of 10-0, 20-7 and 27-20 against the Sun Devils. Roberson, voted the Offensive MVP of the game, rushed for 63 yards, including touchdowns of 32, 3 and 1 yards, and passed for 215 yards by completing 11 of 28 throws.

COMEBACK FALLS SHORT IN CATS' FIRST BCS GAME

TEMPE, Ariz. – Kansas State started slowly but finished with a fury in the 33rd Annual Tostitos Fiesta Bowl. But it wasn't enough to overcome a 21-point third-quarter deficit as the Wildcats lost a hard fought 35-28 decision to Ohio State in its first ever BCS bowl game at Sun Devil Stadium.

Trailing 35-14 heading into the fourth quarter, Ayo Saba scored from three yards out to cap an eight-play, 46-yard drive and closed the game to 14 points.

Ell Roberson's second rushing touchdown with just 2:47 to go pulled K-State within a touchdown, setting up a frantic finish.

After recovering the ensuing on-sides kick, the Wildcats were flagged for being offsides, forcing a re-kick. This time the Buckeyes recovered at the K-State 36-yard line.

But the Wildcats held and got the ball back with 1:12 to play at their own 10-yard.

A 21-yard completion to Davin Dennis, who finished with a career-high seven receptions for 113 yards, moved the ball to the K-State 26. On the next play Roberson connected with Jermaine Moreira for 26 yards to the Ohio State 48 to get Kansas State within striking distance.

However, Roberson's desperation pass from midfield was batted down at the 2, allowing Ohio State to escape with its second straight Fiesta Bowl victory.

Roberson completed 20 passes on a career-high 51 attempts for 294 yards. His 51 attempts were the most ever by a Wildcat in a bowl game, surpassing Darrell Dickey's 34 in the 1982 Independence Bowl.

Josh Buhl tied a K-State bowl game record with 13 total tackles, equaling Laird Veatch's total from the 1993 Copper Bowl and giving him a K-State single-season record of 184.

▶ Game Notes

• K-State finished the season with a 7-6 overall record and a 4-4 mark in Big 12 play, giving the Cats their best overall and conference win total since 2003.

• Yamon Figurs' 76-yard punt return for a touchdown in the second quarter was his second this season... The last time a Wildcat player has returned two punts for touchdowns in a season was 2000 when Aaron Lockett had three.

• Figurs now has 553 career punt return yards, which ranks fifth in school history and has averaged 11.5 yards a return, which ranks sixth in school history... His 323 yards this season on punt returns ranks ninth in single-season school history while his 14.7 yard average ranks fourth in single-season history.

• The punt return was also the longest for a K-State player in bowl history and first return for a TD in a bowl since the 1994 Aloha Bowl (blocked punt)... The last time a true punt return went for a touchdown in a bowl was Andre Coleman's 68-yarder in the 1993 Copper Bowl.

• Josh Freeman finished the 2006 season with 1,780 yards passing, which are tied for the 15th-most in K-State single-season history and the most by a freshman.

• Jeff Snodgrass had 17 field goals this year and 27 for his career... The 17 makes are tied for the fourth-most in school history while his 27 career makes rank seventh in school history.

RUTGERS TOO MUCH IN INAUGURAL TEXAS BOWL

HOUSTON, Texas – Kansas State hung with No. 16 Rutgers for 30 minutes, but the Scarlet Knights scored 20 unanswered points in the second half to hand the Wildcats a 37-10 loss in the inaugural Texas Bowl before 52,210 fans at Reliant Stadium.

Rutgers was as good as advertised and kept K-State off balance all night long.

Ray Rice, the Texas Bowl MVP, rushed for 170 yards and a touchdown and Tim Brown caught two TD passes, for the Scarlet Knights, who claimed their first bowl victory in 137 seasons of intercollegiate football.

Brown's two TD catches came in the opening period and staked Rutgers to a quick 14-0 lead.

K-State answered with a 44-yard field goal by Jeff Snodgrass - his 17th of the season - and a 76-yard punt return for a touchdown by Yamon Figurs that was the longest in K-State bowl history to close the gap to 14-10 midway through the second quarter.

But Jeremy Ito connected on a 37-yard field goal to close the half and linebacker Quintero Frierson returned an interception 27 yards for a touchdown on the first play from scrimmage of the second half to put Rutgers comfortably ahead 24-10.

Rice sprinted 46-yards for his lone touchdown of the game on the Scarlet Knights' next possession before Ito closed out the scoring with a pair of fourth-quarter field goals to provide the final margin.

The Scarlet Knights' seventh-ranked defense proved to be too much and held Kansas State at bay all game long. The Wildcats mustered just 162 yards of total offense for its second fewest yards in a bowl game.

Junior wide receiver Jordy Nelson led the Wildcat receivers, hauling in four receptions for 81 yards.

On defense, senior linebacker Brandon Archer led all players with nine total tackles to finish his career with 268 stops for the 17th-most in school history.

K-STATE FALLS LATE IN FIRST PINSTRIPE BOWL

BRONX, N.Y. – The first Pinstripe Bowl turned into a home run derby.

Delone Carter ran for 198 yards and two touchdowns, Marcus Sales caught three long TD passes and Syracuse got some help from a celebration penalty on Kansas State to beat the Wildcats 36-34 at Yankee Stadium.

Adrian Hilburn slipped a tackle and raced to a 30-yard touchdown catch with 1:13 remaining to pull Kansas State within two. Hilburn saluted the crowd behind the visitor's dugout and was flagged 15 yards for unsportsmanlike conduct, which pushed the 2-point conversion attempt back to the 17-yard line.

Carson Coffman overthrew Aubrey Quarles in the end zone, and when K-State couldn't come up with the onside kick, Syracuse only had to take a knee to win a bowl game for the first time since 2001.

Daniel Thomas ran for three touchdowns for Kansas State, which was making its first bowl appearance since 2006.

In a bowl season filled with blowouts so far, the first bowl game in New York in 48 years turned out to be a hit.

The teams traded big plays right from the start - Thomas went 51 yards for a score on the second play from scrimmage - and scored touchdowns on the first five second-half possessions.

Kansas State coach Bill Snyder, sensing field goals would not be enough, called for a fake with about five minutes left in the fourth from the 10, but Syracuse stacked up Ryan Doerr on the run.

Carter, who scored two second-half touchdowns, broke free for a 60-yard run on the next play. It set up Ross Krautman's 40-yard field goal with 3:08 left that made it 36-28.

Coffman, who played brilliantly in his last college game, led the Wildcats into Syracuse territory and connected with Hilburn near the sideline about 10 yards down field. After winning a footrace to the end zone, he dropped the ball, did a quick salute and turned to celebrate with his teammates.

The flags came flying and the 2-point attempt turned into a desperation play.

CATS COME UP SHORT IN COTTON BOWL LOSS

ARLINGTON, Texas – Kansas State quarterback Collin Klein tied the Big 12 single-season for rushing touchdowns and the NCAA single season record by a quarterback but the No. 8 Wildcats came up short in the 2012 AT&T Cotton Bowl Classic in a 29-16 loss to No. 6 Arkansas.

Kansas State (10-3) was trying to match its school record with 11 victories, but still finished a surprising season in Bill Snyder's second Wildcat turnaround. K-State won 11 games six times during a seven-year span in Snyder's first tenure before his three-year retirement, and almost reached that mark again in his third season back.

After being held to 15 yards on 12 carries in the first half, Klein finished the opening drive of the third quarter with a 6-yard TD run that got the Wildcats to 19-16. That came after Klein had a 15-yard run on the previous play.

That matched the Big 12 record for rushing touchdowns held by 1998 Heisman Trophy winner Ricky Williams of Texas. The only other FBS quarterback with 27 rushing touchdowns in a season was Ricky Dobbs for Navy in 2009.

Klein finished with 42 yards on 24 carries, while completing 16 of 30 passes for 173 yards.

Arkansas' Tyler Wilson was 20 of 31 for 216 yards. Jarius Wright had three catches for 88 yards and a 45-yard touchdown.

The Cotton Bowl was the only non-BCS game with both teams in the top 10 of the Bowl Championship Series standings -- Arkansas came in sixth, Kansas State eighth. It also is the only bowl featuring the SEC vs. the Big 12, the top two conferences in the BCS computer rankings.

The Razorbacks didn't even get a first down until 12 1/2 minutes left in the first half when Dennis Johnson opened a drive with a 28-yard run. That drive ended with the second of Zach Hocker's three field goals, a 22-yarder.

K-State blocked the extra point and Nigel Malone returned it for two points.

It was 19-9 at halftime after Klein threw a 3-yard TD pass to Andrew McDonald with 26 seconds left in the first half. That score was set up after Wilson was sacked by Adam Davis and fumbled at the Hogs' 13.

▶ Game Notes

• The announced attendance was 70,242... There were an estimated 40,000 K-State fans in attendance, which ties for the second most in school history... The school record was 45,000 at the 1997 Fiesta Bowl, while there were an estimated 40,000 at the 1997 Cotton Bowl.

• Collin Klein made his 28th and final career start at quarterback, finishing his career with a 22-6 record to tie the school record for wins as a starting QB... Klein finished his career with a school-record 56 rushing touchdowns, while he is one of six players in Big 12 history with 50 or more career rushing scores and one of two quarterbacks to accomplish the feat... He also concluded his school record for career touchdown responsibility at 86.

• Chris Harper hauled in eight catches for 71 yards against his former team... Harper had five or more catches in five of his final seven games... He finished his K-State career with 123 catches to tie for seventh in school history.

• Arthur Brown registered nine tackles... He ended his senior campaign with 100 tackles, becoming the first Wildcat with 100 or more tackles in consecutive seasons since Josh Buhl in 2002 and 2003.

• Anthony Cantele connected on a 25-yard field goal... It was his 37th career field goal to tie for fourth in school history... Cantele finished out his career with a school-record 92 consecutive extra points made.

OREGON WINS BATTLE OF TOP-10 TEAMS

GLENDALE, Ariz. – De'Anthony Thomas caught the opening kickoff, raced past Oregon's sideline and leaned his head into the end zone like a sprinter crossing the finish line. The track meet had started and the fifth-ranked Ducks didn't look back after that. Triggered by the return, Oregon bolted by No. 7 Kansas State, 35-17.

Teams that had that national title aspirations end on the same day, Oregon and Kansas State ended up in the desert for a marquee matchup billed as a battle of styles: The fast-flying Ducks vs. the execution-is-everything Wildcats.

Thomas followed his kickoff return with a 23-yard touchdown catch, finishing with 195 total yards. Kenjon Barner ran for 143 yards on 31 carries and scored on a 24-yard touchdown pass from Marcus Mariota in the second quarter. Mariota later scored on a 2-yard run in the third quarter, capped by an obscure 1-point safety that went in the Ducks' favor.

Even Oregon's defense got into the act, intercepting Collin Klein twice and holding him to 30 yards on 13 carries.

Thomas hit the Wildcats (11-2) again late in the first quarter, breaking a couple of tackles and dragging three defenders into the end zone for a catch-and-run TD that put the Ducks up 15-0.

Oregon followed a missed 40-yard field goal with a scoring drive late in the second quarter. Moving 77 yards in 46 seconds, the Ducks went up 22-10 at halftime after Mariota hit Barner on 24-yard TD pass.

Alejandro Maldonado hit a 33-yard field goal on Oregon's opening drive of the third quarter and Mariota capped a long drive with a 2-yard TD run. Kansas State's Javonta Boyd blocked the point-after attempt, but even that went wrong for the Wildcats: Chris Harper was tackled in the end zone for a bizarre 1-point safety that put Oregon up 32-10.

Kansas State needed a little time to get its wheels spinning on offense, laboring early before Klein scored on a 6-yard run early in the second quarter.

Klein kept the Wildcats moving in the quarter, though not toward touchdowns: Cantele hit a 25-yard field goal. Klein hit John Hubert on a 10-yard touchdown pass early in the fourth quarter, but all that did was cut Oregon's lead down to 32-17.

• The Cats held UM to 14 points, the fewest allowed by K-State in a bowl game since Boston College scored 12 in the 1994 Aloha Bowl.

• Jake Waters threw for 271 yards and three scores on 21-of-27 aim... His 21 completions broke a K-State bowl record, while his 271 yards ranked fourth and his passing touchdowns tied for third.

• Tyler Lockett caught 10 passes for 116 yards and three touchdowns... He broke the K-State bowl record for receptions and tied the school's single-game and bowl record with three receiving touchdowns... It was the third time this season he hit the three-touchdown mark... He tied the K-State bowl record held by Darnell McDonald in the 1997 Fiesta Bowl.

• Lockett finished the 2013 season in second place in school history in receptions with 81, passing his father, Kevin... He finished the year with 11 touchdowns catches to rank fourth in school history.

• John Hubert finished his senior campaign with 1,048 yards, giving him the 14th 1,000-yard season in school history... He is the school's first 1,000-yard rusher since Daniel Thomas in 2010, while he concluded his career in second place in yards (2,993).

WILDCATS EARN FIRST BOWL WIN SINCE 2002

TEMPE, Ariz. – Jake Waters threw for 271 yards and connected with Tyler Lockett on three touchdowns, leading Kansas State to its first bowl victory in 11 years, 31-14 over Michigan in the Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl.

Kansas State (8-5) scored on its first three possessions, all touchdown passes from Waters to Lockett, and its defense dominated Michigan to end a five-game bowl losing streak.

Lockett set a school bowl record with 10 catches for 116 yards and Waters completed 21 of 27 passes, sending the Wildcats to their first bowl victory since the 2002 Holiday Bowl.

Michigan freshman Shane Morris was steady in place of injured starter Devin Gardner, leading Michigan (7-6) on two early scoring drives. The Wolverines settled for field goals on both and did little the rest of the way, finishing with 261 total yards.

Morris threw for 196 yards on 24-of-38 passing with an interception before leading Michigan on a late scoring drive with the game out of reach.

Michigan's defense also had trouble stopping Kansas State most of the night, giving up 420 total yards.

Kansas State finished the season strong after some early difficulties but won five of its final six games while scoring at least 31 points in each contest.

K-State set the tone on its opening drive, grinding out 75 yards in 15 plays and 7:51 off the clock. Lockett capped it with a 6-yard touchdown catch after the Wildcats' line gave Waters just enough time to get the throw off against Michigan's blitz. Lockett set up the next drive with a 40-yard kickoff return and capped with a 29-yard touchdown catch.

Kansas State raced down the field again on its next drive, setting up Lockett's third touchdown, an 8-yarder from Waters that put the Wildcats up 21-6 at halftime.

Kansas State's Ian Patterson hit a 22-yard field goal in the fourth quarter, John Hubert scored on a 1-yard run after Morris' interception and the Wildcats celebrated Bill Snyder's seventh bowl victory by chasing the 74-year-old coach down the sideline for a water-bucket dump.

▶ Game Notes

• The 57th AutoZone Liberty Bowl was the 19th bowl appearance in Kansas State history and the 17th under Hall of Fame head coach Bill Snyder... The Wildcats are now 7-12 all-time in bowl games and 7-10 under Snyder.

• K-State had a total of 47 starts by true or redshirt freshmen this year, the most in Bill Snyder's 24 years at K-State.

• Linebacker Elijah Lee carded five tackles in addition to making his third interception of the season... It is the most interceptions in a season by a K-State linebacker since Bryan Hickman also had three in 2002.

• The 2015 Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Year and First Team All-America kick returner Morgan Burns returned three kickoffs for 91 yards... He finished the season with 1,138 kickoff-return yards to break the school record and finish third in Big 12 history... He also helped the Wildcats finish fourth in school history in team total kickoff return yards with 1,268 this season.

• Sophomore Matthew McCrane connected on 3-of-3 field goals from distances of 36, 21 and 32 yards... His three field goals made set a school bowl record, resetting his own bowl record from last year... With his connections, K-State made 19 field goals this season, which is tied for the fourth most in school history.

ARKANSAS RUNS PAST CATS IN LIBERTY BOWL

MEMPHIS, Tenn. – Alex Collins ran for 185 yards and three touchdowns and Arkansas capped its late-season surge with a 45-23 victory over K-State in the Liberty Bowl.

Ranked 18th to open the season, Arkansas stumbled through a 1-3 start that knocked the Razorbacks out of the top 25. The Razorbacks (8-5) turned things around won six of their last seven games.

Collins overwhelmed Kansas State's defense in front of a sellout crowd of 61,136, the fourth-largest crowd in the game's 57-year history.

Kansas State (6-7) finished a season below .500 for the first time since Bill Snyder began his second stint as coach in 2009.

Arkansas' Brandon Allen was 20-of-26 for 315 yards with one touchdown and one interception. Kansas State's Kody Cook, starting at quarterback for the first time, went 12-of-24 for 163 yards with a touchdown.

Snyder added some intrigue to this game by making a quarterback switch.

Cook had been Kansas State's second-leading receiver during the regular season while also backing up quarterback Joe Hubener. Cook took the first snaps for Kansas State and remained the quarterback until the game was out of reach.

He played well enough to keep Kansas State relatively close. But he couldn't do anything about the defense's inability to slow down Collins, who was largely responsible for helping Arkansas reach the end zone on three straight first-half drives.

Collins had touchdown runs of 22 yards and 13 yards in the first 17 minutes. He also had a 68-yard burst on his first kickoff return of the season, which set up Jared Cornelius' 13-yard touchdown on an end around.

Kansas State trailed 31-23 late in the third quarter and appeared ready to make a stop when Arkansas knocked out the Wildcats with a one-two punch.

Facing third-and-13, Allen found All-America tight end Hunter Henry down the left sideline for a 43-yard completion. On the next play, Collins spun away from a couple of defenders, eluded the grasp of a third and dragged a couple more into the end zone for a 14-yard touchdown to essentially put the game out of reach.

K-State Offensive MVP: Kody Cook, QB
K-State Defensive MVP: Charmeachealle Moore, LB

▶ Game Notes

• K-State's victory was the Wildcats' first bowl win since the 2013 Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl and just the second bowl win since the 2002 season.

• The win gave K-State its fourth nine-win season in the last six years... The last time the Cats won at least nine games four times in a six-year span was 1993-2003 when they did so 10 times during that 11-year span.

• With 218 rushing yards, Kansas State finished the 2016 season with 3,013 total rushing yards to rank third in school history... The Wildcats also earned a 5.27-yard average to rank first in school history, while their 231.8 yards per game average ranked fourth.

• Jesse Ertz was named the MVP for the 2016 Texas Bowl, the first Wildcat QV to earn MVP honors in a bowl game since Ell Roberson in the 2002 Holiday Bowl.

• Jesse Ertz finished his first full season with 1,012 rushing yards to rank third in school history among quarterbacks and ninth overall... It was the 15th 1,000-yard season in school history and the first since John Hubert had 1,048 yards in 2013, which was achieved in a win in the 2013 Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl.

• Dominique Heath had a 52-yard touchdown run – the longest rush in K-State bowl history, while Byron Pringle recorded a 79-yard touchdown reception – the second-longest pass play in K-State bowl history.

CATS CAP OFF SWEEP OF TEXAS WITH BOWL WIN

HOUSTON, Texas – Kansas State was unbeatable against teams from Texas in the regular season, and that didn't change in the Texas Bowl.

Jesse Ertz threw for 195 yards and a touchdown and ran for two more scores in Kansas State's 33-28 victory over Texas A&M. He had 67 yards rushing to give him 1,012 this season.

The victory improved the Wildcats to 5-0 against teams from the Lone Star State this season after they downed Texas Tech, Texas, Baylor and TCU earlier this year.

Ertz had a 79-yard touchdown pass and scoring runs of 1 and 5 yards to help give Kansas State its fourth-straight win and first bowl victory since the 2013 Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl.

The Wildcats led 33-21 after Ertz bulled into the end zone on a 1-yard run with nine minutes left. Ertz set up the score with a 20-yard run two plays earlier.

The Aggies cut it to 33-28 on Josh Reynolds' 15-yard TD reception about a minute later.

Texas A&M attempted to convert a fourth-and-8 with about two minutes left, but Trevor Knight's pass was short, to give Kansas State the ball back and allow the Wildcats to run out the clock.

Texas A&M got to 23-21 when Reynolds made a 4-yard touchdown catch with about seven minutes left in the third quarter. A 25-yard field goal by Ian Patterson extended Kansas State's lead to 26-21 with about three minutes remaining in the quarter. A highlight of that drive came on a 36-yard run by Justin Silmon.

The Aggies took a 7-0 lead when Keith Ford scored on a 7-yard run on their first possession.

Kansas State tied it when Ertz connected with Byron Pringle and he dashed down the field for a 79-yard touchdown run later in the first quarter.

The Wildcats took the lead when Ertz stiff-armed Justin Evans on a 5-yard touchdown run early in the second quarter. But Myles Garrett blocked the extra point to make it 13-7.

A 3-yard reception by Ricky Seals-Jones put A&M back on top 14-13 soon after that. But Kansas State regained the lead with a 40-yard field goal before pushing the lead to 23-14 on a 52-yard run by Dominique Heath just before halftime.

Most Valuable Player: Jesse Ertz, QB

• K-State's victory – paired with a 33-28 win over Texas A&M in the 2016 Texas Bowl – marked just the second time the Wildcats won consecutive bowl games... The other time Kansas State won back-to-back bowl games was the 1999 Holiday Bowl (24-20 over Washington) and the 2001 Cotton Bowl (following 2000 season; 35-21 over Tennessee).

• K-State tallied 344 rushing yards, the most in its bowl history... The previous record was 329 yards in the 2001 Cotton Bowl vs. Tennessee... The Cats finished the season with 2,584 rushing yards to rank seventh in school history.

• For the first time in K-State bowl history, the Wildcats saw two players rush for more than 100 yards as Alex Delton (158) and Alex Barnes (117) both surpassed the century mark.

• Quarterback Alex Delton rushed 20 times for 158 yards – a new K-State individual bowl game record – as he took home Cactus Bowl Offensive MVP honors... Delton rushed for three touchdowns, while tossing for another... His rushing yardage total was the sixth-highest total by a K-State quarterback in any contest... He earned his second career 100-yard rushing game... His three rushing touchdowns were one shy of his career high and tied for the most in K-State bowl history.

K-STATE RUNS AWAY WITH CACTUS BOWL WIN

PHOENIX, Ariz. – Kansas State rushed for a bowl record 344 yards, including a K-State individual bowl game high 158 yards from quarterback Alex Delton, and used 28 unanswered second half points to rush past UCLA for a Cactus Bowl crown.

Delton came off the bench and took his first touch to the house for 68 yards, the first of three rushing touchdowns and four total scores the Cactus Bowl Offensive MVP. Alex Barnes joining Delton over the century mark with 117 yards, 41 of which came on a fourth quarter, fourth-down conversion to help put the game away.

K-State's 344 total rushing yards surpassed the 329 yards rushed against Tennessee in the 2001 Cotton Bowl. Delton's total topped Josh Scobey's mark of 150 in the same game and was the sixth-highest rushing total by a K-State quarterback in any contest.

Safety Denzel Goolsby was one of four Wildcats to tally more than five tackles in the game, but one play sealed the Cactus Bowl Defensive MVP honors and turned the game in K-State's favor for good. The sophomore stripped UCLA running back Bo Olorunfunmi with both in a mass of upright players on the first play of UCLA's second drive of the second half, setting up a short field and go-ahead scoring drive for K-State.

UCLA struck first on a field goal with a minute left in the first quarter, but on the final play of the stanza, Delton came into the game and rushed 68 yards for a touchdown. However, the Bruins came back with long touchdown passes by Devon Modster, the first a 52-yarder to Jordan Lasley followed by a 70-yarder to Theo Howard to give UCLA a 17-7 halftime lead.

Delton's shortest run of the game – a fourth-and-inches push – opened the scoring in the third quarter and, after Goolsby strip, K-State used the short field to surge ahead 21-14 when Dominique Heath took a Delton pass and juked a defender en route to an eight-yard score.

Barnes made it a 21-0 run when he burst through the hole to find green grass on a 41-yard, fourth-down scamper less than a minute into the fourth quarter. Late in the game, Delton keyed a 15-play, 98-yard drive that chewed up 8:06 of game clock, then punched it in from three yards out for the final tally. In all, K-State possessed the ball for 35:07 in the contest.

Offensive Most Valuable Player: Alex Delton, QB
Defensive Most Valuable Player: Denzel Goolsby, DB
